Analytic Rubric for America Dreams

Three facets of understanding: Explanation, Interpretation, and Perspective A rubric that combines insight and performance as it relates to the understanding of ideas and meaning.

points	Effective: The product is effective. The layout and design elements are presented in a clear and thorough manner, showing awareness of the audience, context, and purpose.  List evidence:  •	Considered: a reasonably critical and comprehensive look at all points of view in the context of one's own; makes clear that there is plausibility to other points of view in the American Dream.  List evidence:  •	Perceptive: a helpful interpretation or analysis of the importance/meaning/significan ce: tells a clear and instructive story of the American Dream. Provides a useful history or context; sees different levels of interpretation  List evidence:	Developed: an account of the American Dream that reflects some in-depth and personalized ideas; the student is making the work her own, going beyond the given—there is supported theory here, but insufficient or inadequate evidence and argument  List evidence:

points	(10 points possible)  Highly Effective: The product is highly effective. The product is engaging, polished, clear, and presents the material in a thorough manner. The presentation is mindful of the audience, context, and purpose. The final product shows high quality craftsmanship.  List evidence:  •	(10 points possible)  Insightful: a penetrating and novel viewpoint of the American Dream. Effectively critiques and encompasses other plausible perspectives; takes a long and dispassionate, critical view of the issues involved.  List evidence:  •	(10 points possible)  Profound: a powerful and illuminating interpretation and analysis of the importance/meaning/significan ce; tells a rich and insightful story of the American Dream. Provides a rich history or context; sees deeply and incisively any ironies in the different interpretations.  List evidence:  •	(10 points possible)  Sophisticated: an unusually thorough, elegant, and inventive account of the American Dream; fully supported, verified, and justified; deep and broad: goes well beyond the information given  List evidence:  •
